

国際日本学副専攻プログラムのスタートと共に英語による講演会を
3回やります。自由参加です。(静岡大学人文社会科学部主催)

第1回 Keiko Hirose: “Being Japanese from Africa to Cambodia”

11月17日(木)

共通A棟302

13:00 ~ 14:30

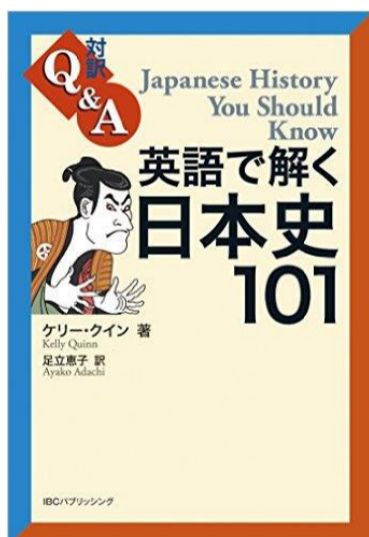

Keiko Hirose received her M.A. from Shizuoka University in 2000. She has extensive experience teaching and living abroad—Ghana, Tanzania, Kenya, Cambodia. She is a regular guest on SBS radio, talking on intercultural matters.

第2回 Kelly Quinn: Admiral Perry, Atomic Bombs and Ninja:

Japanese History from the View of an Outsider

12月1日(木) 共通A棟302 15:00 ~ 16:30

Kelly Quinn grew up in Michigan, in the United States. As an undergraduate, at the University of Michigan, he majored in both history and English. He has written a number of English textbooks, including Japanese History You Should Know, and is currently an Associate Professor at Nagoya Institute of Technology.

第3回 Nobuaki Hirose: “A Japanese Painter's Developing Style

—from Africa to Cambodia”

12月15日(木) 共通A棟302

13:00 ~ 14:30

Nobuaki Hirose is a 1975 graduate of Waseda University. He served for many years as a coordinator in JICA offices in many countries—Kenya, Tanzania, and Cambodia. When he has not been abroad, he has run a “juku” for high school students in Shizuoka. His painting is his “life work.”